

Paraguay

Monday, 08 March 2010

Last Updated Tuesday, 09 March 2010

GRTU met Mr Rodrigo Martinez who was short listed as Honorary consul in Paraguay. He is 33 years old has graduated in the US, owns a family business with 1000 hectares of land breeding pedigree bulls. GRTU provided the representative with guidelines on which Malta and Paraguay can collaborate and what opportunities Malta has to offer for Paraguay.

Mr Martinez explained that Paraguay was a Spanish colony and the influence is still very felt also because they speak Spanish. Migration went mostly to Algeria and Spain. As products they are strong in the agricultural sector and semi-finished products. Members interested in doing business with Paraguay should contact GRTU.

Abigail Mamo - abigail.mamo@grtu.eu